INTERLACHEN

A college, though defined in terms of an academic sphere, is a community within itself . . . and like all communities, it is nurtured by a society . . . and like all communities, lifeless without it.

OUR CAMPUS in the quiet of early morning has an aura of impatience about it . . . with no movement except the faint stirrings of nature, it is waiting, waiting to . . .

Deserted classrooms and empty chairs seem to wait patiently overnight for busy people to fill them when classes begin.

A peaceful hush hangs over the deserted campus in the early morning hours. Impersonal walks and empty locker rooms are quiet.

COME ALIVE . . . alive with an exuberance and vitality that youth gives flash to . . . ALIVE, not only in the sense of pure physical movement, but in the exaltation of dreams and desires that are given rise by academic adventures .

Students walk briskly to classes. Attending an important basketball game is part of campus life.

The weekly trek from Wednesday convocation in Branscomb Auditorium. Taking notes in class helps a great deal when exams are given.

YOUNG AND EXCITING . . . young because of the eternal perpetuation of youth . . . and exciting because of the pace, as intense and powerful as the urgency of youth balanced against the wisdom of age . . .

Vibrant students reflect their enthusiasm for living in the rip-roaring college world.

ENTHUSIASM . . . The sense of competition amid a background of myriad colors . . . not only of hues, but the colors instilled in clamor, irrepressible zeal, devotion, spirit and ardor

A winning team and a pretty cheerleader invite students to support athletic games. With the new George W. Jenkins Field House completed, three different games can be held simultaneously on three full-size courts.

A touch of stage fright is apt to grip the most polished performer.

VIGOR OF LIFE . . . fully alive and sensitive to the fulfillment of expression, whether in the dance, the sharing of a victorious moment, or the satisfaction of academic progress . . .

Activity, whether attending chapel or modern dance class, can be seen as an active part of the daily routine.

IMPRESSIVE MOMENTS

... with appreciation for artistic presentations sent to the heart by music, and inexplicable sensations stirred by the quiet beauty of a scene.

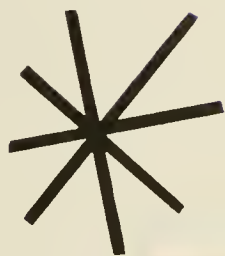

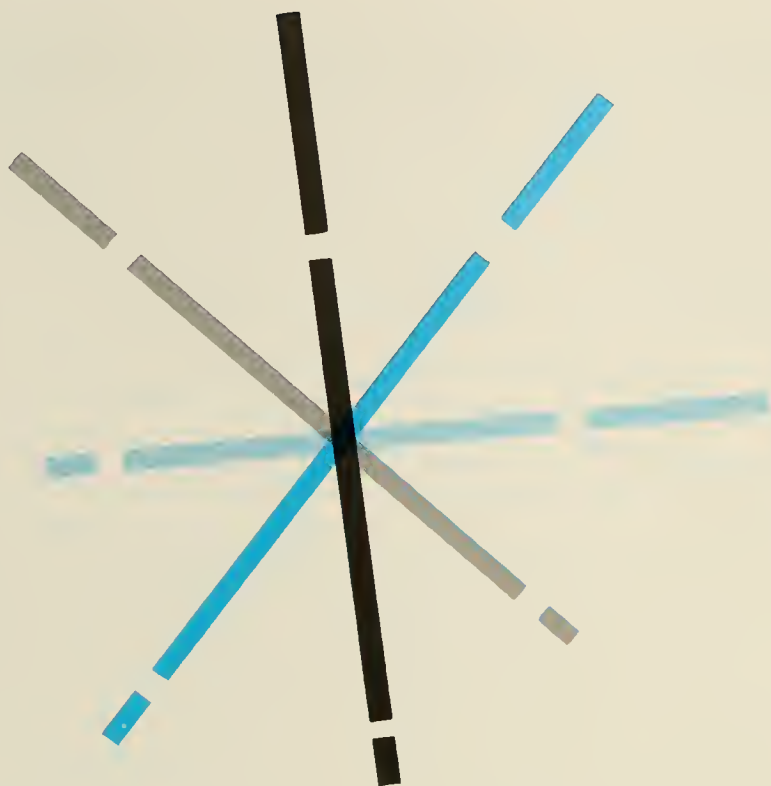

Eager, interested collegians listen attentively to the program of music presented by the concert choir.

COME ALIVE . . . with expressions enough to leave no further need for words . . .

FEATURES

SOLITUDE . . . a time to think
... a chance to be alone . . .
silence . . . being an individual
... where thoughts and ideas
begin . . .

Southern's Garden of Meditation provides an ideal spot for getting away from the crowds.

BOREDOM . . . *the ceaseless routine . . . humdrum necessities
. . . sameness . . . learning to accept the commonplace as well as the unusual . . . repetition . . .*

College life is not always exciting. Those 8 a.m. classes and lengthy meetings are never ending and, at times, tedious.

Even rush parties and basketball games have their dull moments.

UNCERTAINTY . . . those times when we need advice . . . uneasiness . . . a chance of making a wrong decision . . . trying to make that important impression . . .

Questioning and doubt are characteristic of all of us. That hollow feeling accompanies competition, dating, and expectation.

ESCAPE . . . freedom from routine
 . . . a friendly telephone conversation
 . . . getting away from it all . . .
retreat from responsibility . . .
emotional release . . .

Talking with your favorite girl or dancing to the beat of a college band are just two ways of providing release from academic tensions.

COMPANIONSHIP . . . finding a new friend . . . sharing one's joys . . . understanding . . . looking at the future together . . . knowing there is someone who cares . . .

CONFUSION . . . *indecision . . .
thinking in riddles . . . facing a dilemma
. . . the exciting chaos of an intramural game . . . a hodgepodge of disordered experiences . . .*

College life wouldn't be complete without occasional perplexities. Even "Cleopatra" had unresolved problems.

*AMBITION . . . goals . . . drive . . . the brink of new experience . . . seeking achievement . . . desired aspirations . . .
proving oneself . . . enrichment . . .

In class, on the drill field, or seated in a hope-filled crowd, personal motivations comprise the world of ambition which expresses itself in individual ways.

COMPETITION . . . response to a challenge . . . unsurmountable odds . . . on the basketball court or in a beauty contest . . . win or lose . . . an incentive for better sportsmanship and character development . . .

FRUSTRATION . . . tension . . . feelings of inability . . . a time when best isn't enough . . . a flare of emotion leading to that "let's get away from it all" attitude . . . discouragement . . .

Sometimes, no matter how hard we try,
things just don't seem to be going our way.

ENLIGHTENMENT . . . discovery . . .
finally grasping the ultimate truth . . .
learning . . . the radiance of knowledge
. . . finding wisdom in resolution . . . the dawn of recognition . . .

Catching on to that difficult dance step or finding the answer through a classroom lecture are exciting and rewarding.

"Just keep running" is the cry of the Greek torch bearers, while others grumble through exercises and some turn to hours of study.

PERSEVERANCE . . . *opposition . . .
continuance in spite of difficulty . . .
. . . persistence . . . nothing is so hard, but searching will find out . . . great works are performed, not by strength, but by insistence . . .*

Neither rain nor strain can stop Southern students from fulfilling purposes.

LEARNING SELF-DISCIPLINE . . .
*finding personal responsibility . . . acceptance . . . submission to authority . . .
pain now, pleasure later . . . settling down to the "old college grind" . . .*

We learn quickly that social activities must often be traded for study. Deadlines must be met and responsibilities must be faced.

Tedious chores like whittling down the waist line or enduring those monthly haircuts are inescapable.

FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION . . .
*release through creativity . . . a breathless moment . . . nonconformity . . . daring to be different . . . grand style . . .
“the dress of thoughts” . . .*

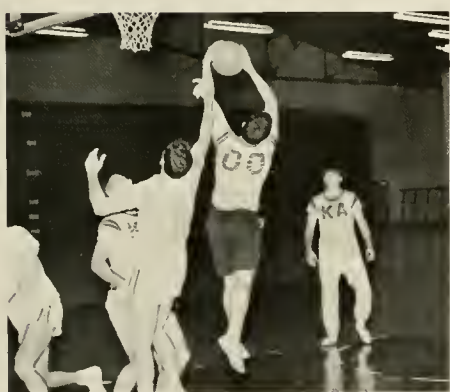

Some people strive to hit that high note while others work diligently blowing large bubbles.

INGENUITY . . . resourcefulness . . . delight in imagination . . . ability . . . "a pint can't hold a quart—if it holds a pint it is doing all that can be expected of it" . . .

Making do with one wheel instead of two is a favorite trick of one of our faculty.

DEPRESSION . . . sadness . . . loneliness . . . being accepted . . . an exam grade . . . a term paper due . . . a feeling of helplessness . . . gloom . . . being alone . . . meeting with friends . . . times are not so bad as they seem . . . they couldn't be . . .

Despair accompanies a disappointing game or finding an empty mailbox. A consoling friend is a comfort when the chips are down.

CHALLENGE . . . a contest . . . hope . . .
 an opportunity . . . a mind made up . . .
 driven by desire . . . making the team . . .
 win or lose . . . always another chance . . .

Lab problems and derby events challenge students to win. A pep talk and a worried spectator give incentive.

"Get that ball, you all" is a cheer which gives momentum to our will to succeed. The challenge of making new friends is even more important than always winning the game.

SUCCESS . . . a broad smile . . .
 a standing ovation . . . a sense of accomplishment . . . being the man of the moment . . . gaining status
 . . . making the most of opportunities . . .

A new car and a proud owner are signs of success and accomplishment.

BEING ONE OF THE GROUP . . .
sisterhood . . . a feeling of belonging . . .
someone who means much . . . fraternity
socials . . . a special time . . . laughing
. . . loving . . . living . . .

The limelight is often shared in a crowd when competition is keen and precision necessary.

INDUSTRY . . . cleverness . . . caught up in the activities of a busy day . . . much to be accomplished . . . pursuit . . . "It is better to wear out than to rust out" . . .

Working on a Greek Week display requires hard work, time, and effort on the part of sorority women. Freshmen girls and the cafeteria staff show cleverness in their particular activities.

WONDER . . . pensive moments
. . . asking "Will we win?" . . . amazement . . . where thought begins . . .
private questioning . . . awe . . .

Behind the scenes or on the sidelines during an important game, anxious stares and uncertain looks can be noticed.

The camera often catches collegians with expressions of awe and fascination written on their faces.

*SURPRISE . . . being caught off-guard . . .
discovering the unexpected . . . a real shocker
. . . being startled into speechlessness . . .
a tap on the shoulder indicating "You're on Candid Camera" . . .*

Like a bolt of lightning, startled looks flash and fade across faces.

*JOY . . . elation . . . friendship and loyalties . . . Spring vacation . . . tears of happiness . . . fun . . . laughter
. . . carefree moments . . . success . . .*

Sorority bid night is one of screams, cheers, laughter and welcomed surprise.

RECREATION . . . revelry . . .
team effort . . . a round of pleasure
. . . spirited singing . . . doing something you like . . . a happy diversion . . . activity . . .

A song fest at the derby games or modeling in sculpture class provide unique opportunities for relaxation and recreation.

Requiring coordination and agility, modern dancing and relay racing are means of "letting off steam."

RELAXATION . . . breaking away from the grinding routine . . . an afternoon at the pool . . . spare time . . . "the pause that refreshes" . . . care-free moments . . .

Sunny Saturday afternoons find sun worshippers "catching the rays" at the pool. Dancing or just loafing between classes provides time to catch your breath during a busy day's schedule.

Leisure time is spent in various ways. Some prefer "girl-talk" while others turn toward outdoor sports.

EXUBERANCE . . . a zest for life . . .
"real gusto" . . . an exciting toast . . .
zeal . . . hysterical laughter . . . spirit
. . . that contagious quality which produces greatness . . .

Catching the enthusiasm from others is easy for Southern students and faculty members. Parties and games always boost campus spirit.

Times of need and times of despair lead us to depend on a Higher Being. A chapel's beauty or a simple prayer help us find comfort and strength.

INSPIRATION . . . hope in God
. . . faith in each other . . . the lam- bent flame of intellect . . . hands clasped in prayer . . . creative thought
. . . realizing that "we are such stuff as dreams are made of" . . .

"Hitch your wagon to a star," for dreams often crystalize and become realities.

VICTORY . . . success . . . setting a new record . . . an ecstatic cheer . . . triumph
. . . the glow of seeing a job well-done . . .
a team's warm affection to its coach . . .
"the smile of God" . . .

Below: The happy beam of success is written on the excited faces of the team after winning a game.

Although personal victory is rewarding, it is seldom private. It is the result of team-support and effort.

RECOGNITION . . . getting that well-deserved pat on the back . . . eagerly claiming the trophy . . . public acknowledgement . . . reward . . . a well-timed laugh at your joke . . .

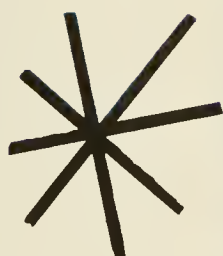

Honors are gratefully accepted with mixed feelings of pride and humility.

REALIZATION . . . Elaine Center attained Florida Southern's highest honor for scholastic achievement and extra-curricular activities, that of being chosen Honor Walk Student. She is listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" and Greek Hall of Fame. She is past president of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, president of Panhellenic Council, Pi Kappa Alpha Dream Girl, a Miss Interlachen finalist, and an ROTC Coed Sponsor. Elaine is also a member of Political Union, Cap and Gown, and the Concert Choir and was editor of the 1965 Interlachen.

THE INTERLACHEN
Florida Southern College

Dear Margaret:

How do I let myself get talked into these things. I guess it is because I like to look at pictures of pretty girls. I have studied these pictures so long that I think I am in love with all these girls. Alas, even King Farouk had to select wife numbers one, two and three so I have with painstaking care and loving attention selected contestant number three as my first choice, contestant number six as my second choice and contestant number seven as my third choice. Will you please forward them to me by return mail.

Seriously, it was a torturous pleasure and I wish each one of these beautiful girls much happiness to go with their loveliness.

Warmest wishes,

Pat Boone

Pat Boone

PAT BOONE OUR CELEBRITY JUDGE

Our sincere appreciation goes to Mr. Pat Boone, well-known singing star, who undertook the difficult task of selecting MISS INTERLACHEN and her runners-up from photographs of the eight finalists.

The Interlachen proudly announces MISS INTERLACHEN of 1966 and the other beautiful members of her court.

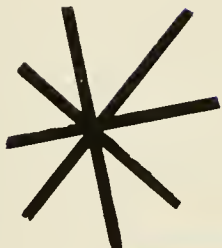

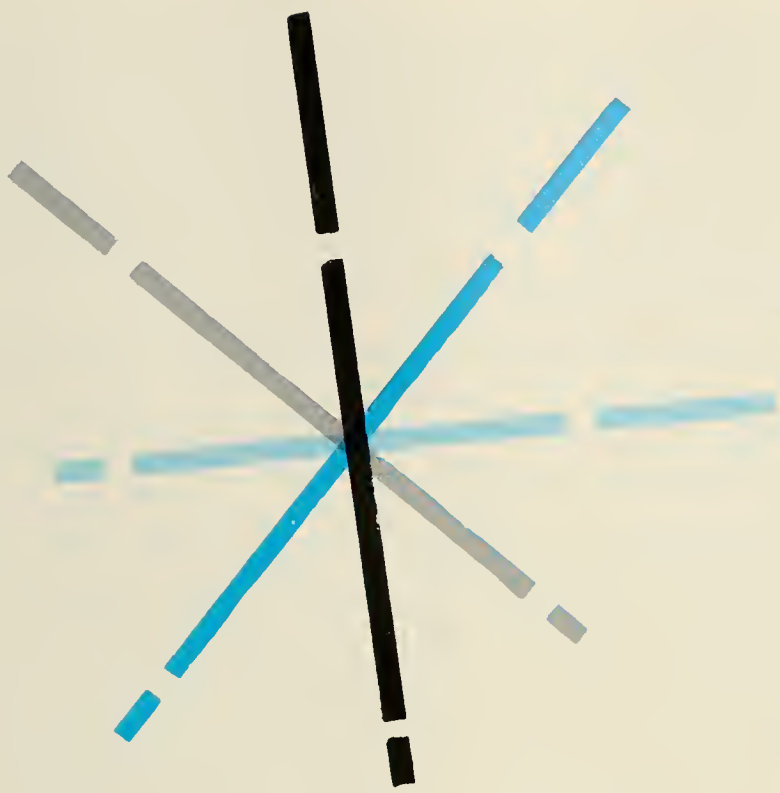

Beauty FINALIST JUDGES

ORGANIZATIONS

Seated: Berry, Stover. Standing: Hall, Gibson.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association is the parent organization of such branches as the Supreme Court, the Senate, and Men's and Women's Student Government Associations. It serves as co-ordinator and guide for these branches. Florida Southern's SGA is a member of the Southern Universities SGA (SUSGA).

OFFICERS

DON HALL President
 KEN GIBSON Vice-President
 BEV STOVER Secretary
 JIM BERRY Treasurer

Supreme Court

The Supreme Court is the focal point of the Student Government Association Judicial Branch. It acts as an appellate court in cases arising from decisions of any other judicial body. The Supreme Court also has original jurisdiction in all legislative matters. It is composed of five justices from the student body and one from the faculty or administration.

Senate

First Row: Hall, Gibson, Stover, Berry, Valdez, Munc, Jones, Bozeman. Second Row: Parsons, Buzzelli, Leer, Brown, Nichols, Eichhorn, Webster. Third Row: Colbert, Bowles, Lukes, Clayton, McKnight, Rogers.

The Senate, a branch of Student Government Association, coordinates activities of the student body. Working with the president and other officers are male and female senators, each serving one year, from each of the four classes; and two senators-at-large, who are from the sophomore and junior classes, and serve two years. The Senate meets twice monthly and sponsors the Freshman Orientation program, the campus TB Drive, and the Christmas dance. All campus elections are conducted by the Senate and campus organizations must be chartered by the Senate.

Don Hall and Toni Eichhorn take part in a discussion at this Senate meeting.

Women's Student Government Association

The Women's Student Government Association is a governmental subsidiary of the Student Government Association. It is composed of representatives from sororities and independent resident women. Day women students are also represented in WSGA. The Association serves as a court for infractions of college and house rules, and strives to uphold the standards of women residents at Florida Southern College.

The officers this year are Melody Wolfe, president; Virdia Van Huss, vice-president; Martha Sargeant, secretary-treasurer.

Melody Wolfe calls a WSGA meeting to order.

Junior Advisers

The Junior Advisers are a select group of junior women who are screened and invited to be a Junior Adviser by a student-faculty committee. Chosen on the basis of personality, scholastic achievement, activities and interest, it is the highest honor a junior woman can receive. Those women accepting the position are carefully trained. They then live in the freshman residence halls, where they are sought by the girls for advice and guidance or a friendly conversation. Ann McGill in Joseph-Reynolds and Barbara McKinley in Allan Spivey served as presidents this year.

Sherry Hicks gives some helpful advice to a freshman coed.

Social Standards Committee

First Row: Cannistraci, Hamilton, Rice, D. Wilson. Second Row: Faulkner, Owens, Reilly, M. Wilson, Hanson.

The Social Standards Committee is a branch of the Women's Student Government Association. The Committee is composed of the social chairmen of the women's residence halls. Their purpose is to raise the social standards of the FSC coeds. The committee members publish "The Southern Charm," a newsletter to the coeds. Highlighting the fall semester was their annual fall fashion show. In April a display of bridal china, silver, crystal, and attire was shown at their annual Bride's Party. Ginny Yates served as chairman of Social Standards.

Ginny Yates discusses the fashion show with Mrs. Sue Amos.

Men's Student Government Association

First Row: Lukes, Remington, Bailey, Edinger, Rogers, Skidmore. Second Row: Bowles, Norris, Sedgley, Ward, Mingledorff. Third Row: Francisco, Barber, Haddon, Dickerson, Long.

Men's Student Government Association was formed on campus in 1959 under the combined efforts of the Director of Men's office and the Student Government Association. The organization is composed of one representative from each fraternity and independent male housing unit. The purpose of the MSGA is to establish and enforce disciplinary regulations for male students. The highlight of the year was the annual MSGA banquet.

The officers this year are Bill Lukes, president; Tom Remington, vice-president; Bill Bailey, secretary-treasurer; Punch Edinger, chaplain; Mr. Frank Szabo, adviser.

The officers of MSGA enjoy the annual leadership banquet.

Advisers Council for Resident Men

Each year outstanding men are selected as advisers for the men's freshman residence halls. The junior and senior men chosen have a 2.2 average or better and exemplify qualities of leadership. They help to give the residence halls a friendly and orderly atmosphere. By working closely with the office of the Dean of Students and with their adviser, Director of Men Frank P. Szabo, the residence advisers provide a connection between the students and the administration.

The officers this year are Bill Helton, president; Tom Eisenberg, vice-president; Bill Mowbray, secretary.

First Row: Helton, Eisenberg, Mowbray, Smelt. Second Row: Antoon, Aitken, Gibson, Vayo. Third Row: Parsons, Petrone, McKnight, Valentine.

Kay Williford, right, confers with Editor Judy Newton.

Jerry Buzzelli, Judy Broome, and Allen Downard tally the number of inches of advertising.

The Southern

The Southern, edited and published by the journalism students of Florida Southern, is the official campus weekly. It is rated a top college newspaper in its enrollment division, having received a first place award from Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Vagabonds

The Vagabonds.

Vagabonds is an organization designed to promote mutual aid and encouragement for students of drama and speech. Eligibility for membership is determined by the organization as designated in the constitutional by-laws. Outstanding plays from the professional theater and experimental plays, written, produced, and directed by members, are presented. This year Orphan Girl, an old-fashioned melodrama, was repeated by popular demand from the summer performances. The winter repertory season included Shakespeare's Othello, Shaw's Arms and the Man, and Kesselring's Arsenic and Old Lace. Their annual awards banquet was held in the spring to recognize outstanding achievement in the field of drama. The officers were Carolee Gearhart, president; Bill Deupree, stage manager; Reid Freeman, publicity manager; Mr. Mel Wooton, adviser.

Florida Southern's first coed dance and drill team was organized this past fall in cooperation with the music and the physical education departments. This season the girls performed at basketball halftimes, fund-raising benefits, and assemblies. Next year they will also perform at soccer half-times. The group's dance instructor is Nan Johnson and their faculty adviser is Miss Kay Langston.

Concert Band

The primary function of the Concert Band is to provide a musical atmosphere of an instrumental nature to the campus. The organization is composed of advance music students. The Concert Band has helped support school spirit by performing at several soccer and basketball games. The group participated in the Founders' Week program, and has given several concerts for the community and college.

The officers are: Chester Dissinger, president; Sally Luke, vice-president; Linda Hayden, secretary-treasurer; and Dr. K. C. Anderson, director.

Accounting Club

First Row: Tyler, Aker, Lundeen, Patterson, Cook, Darby. Second Row: Walker, Miss Templeton, Hunzeker, Mr. Knippers, Dermont. Third Row: Sawyer, Knappenberger, Enstice, Cleaver.

The Accounting Club is designed to enable its members to see the practical aspect of accounting in the world outside the classroom. The membership is not only for accounting majors and minors but also for other students who are interested in the field. The club engages speakers who give them a personal glimpse of general accounting principles. Among their many activities are trips and tours of local city governments to observe the accounting processes used today.

This year's officers are Marvin Tyler, president; Larry Aker, vice-president; Phillip Lundeen, secretary; Ottis Patterson, treasurer; Miss Louise Templeton and Mr. Edward Knippers, advisers.

Carolyn Cook, Bill Helton, and Linda Meyers tackle an accounting problem.

Women's Business Club

The Women's Business Club was recently organized on campus to promote the interest of Florida Southern coeds in the business world. This organization brings together women who are business majors or who show a profound interest in business. This year the Women's Business Club has been accepted to receive a charter for Phi Chi Theta, a national women's business-orientated fraternity corresponding to Delta Sigma Pi. They have carefully planned meetings with educational speakers, and field trips. Members of the Women's Business Club are kept informed on the business world today and of new methods which develop.

Alpha Delta Pi

We live for each other.

Alpha Delta Pi was founded on May 15, 1851, at Wesleyan Female College in Macon, Georgia, as the Adelphean Society.

The Gamma Gamma Chapter was granted a charter on Florida Southern's campus on April 27, 1946.

Alpha Delta Pi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon co-sponsor the annual Greek Sing, in which all fraternities and sororities compete in song. Twice a year, the ADPi's collect food for a needy family.

Blue and white are the chosen colors, and the official flower is the violet.

Interfraternity Council

Promoting the betterment of the College through the improvement of the social fraternities, the Interfraternity Council is composed of representatives from each fraternity on campus. One of the major aims of IFC is to equalize the opportunities of all the fraternities. Activities include co-sponsoring with Panhellenic Council all Greek Week events, including workshops. They also work together helping the Lakeland Jaycees bag Halloween candy for the children attending the city-wide Halloween festival. IFC promotes through various retreats and other functions a closer relationship between all Greek men on campus. IFC accomplished its purposes under the leadership of Jay Weinstein this year. Other officers were Tim Skidmore, vice-president; Dave Balser, secretary; and Doug Colfax, treasurer.

Every year Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Alpha Delta Pi sponsor Greek Sing. Initiated in 1955, Greek Sing has grown each year. All sororities and fraternities are eligible for competition. Judges from nearby schools and churches are selected by the Greek Sing Committee. This year Alpha Omicron Pi became the first Greek organization to win a trophy for three consecutive years, and retired the trophy for the best sorority.

The AOPi's sing their way to victory for the third year.

The Pikes appear in top-notch form to win.

ATHLETICS

The dream of the administration and faculty, as well as the students, came true as Florida Southern played its first basketball game in the new George W. Jenkins Field House on December 6, 1965. This new addition to the campus is not only used for varsity contests but for intramurals as well. In short, it is the home of all physical education activity at Florida Southern College.

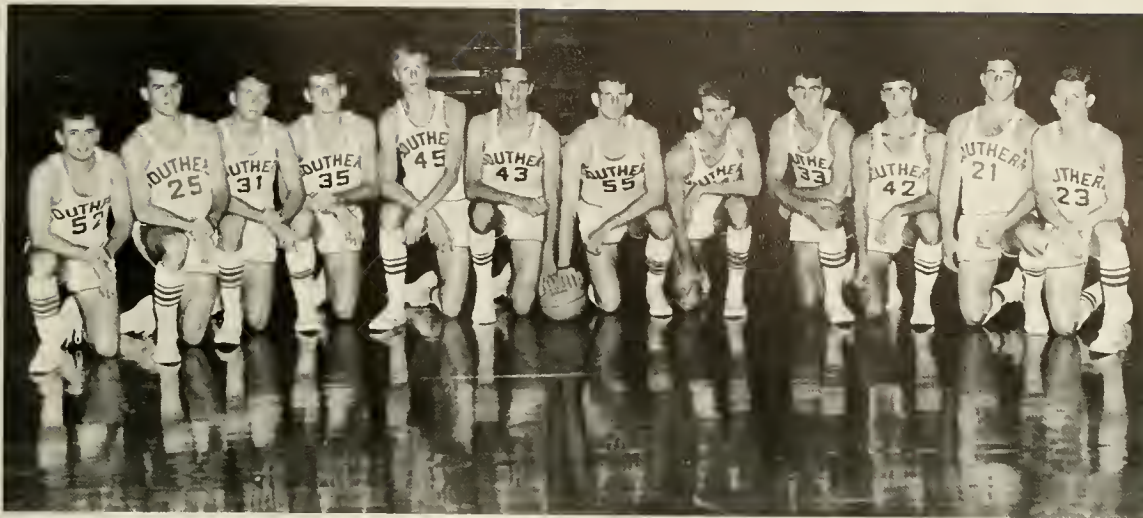

Varsity Basketball

This year's Florida Southern Basketball Mocs proved themselves as one of this school's finest teams despite the loss of last year's number one man, Bobby Bowman, by compiling an over-all record of 16-9. Co-Captains Mike Huber and Dan Doherty led the team to victories over such schools as Mercer, Georgia State, Tulane, and University of the South. A superb defense and a steady offense were the watch words of this year's team, not to mention the added incentive of having a real home court in the new George W. Jenkins Field House. Coach Greene can pride himself for having one of the best all around teams in the past years at Southern.

BASKETBALL CONT'D.

Head Coach Tom Greene and Assistant Coach John Mack.

Dan Doherty and a William and Mary player battle for possession of the ball, while Mike Huber stands ready to assist.

Always a crowd pleaser, the "Huber Hook" again hits its mark.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Under the coaching of John Mack, a newcomer to the Southern coaching staff, the Junior Varsity has begun to build future varsity stars. The team had three men over 6 feet 4 inches tall, and gave their competition a rough time in each contest.

Right: Freshman Fred Lewis (23) gets valuable varsity experience playing against Rollins College.

Cheerleaders

The enthusiastic cheerleaders provide the "Come Alive" spirit which prevails throughout the year at Southern. With an active student body behind them, they cheered the varsity squads to victory. This year the cheerleaders organized a new club, "Spirit Incorporated" which added even more pep to the cheers of the crowd.

Bottom row, from the left: Susie Williams, Sandy Railsback, co-capt., Barbara Burke, Jean Helton. Second row: Karen Stanley, Margaret Hussey, Brenda Bloxsom. Top: Paula Williams, capt.

Cheerleaders, as well as players, anxiously await the referee's decision. Tense moments accompany each big game.

Lively cheers from the bench give an added incentive to win to the team.

Soccer

This year's squad had a nucleus of eleven lettermen which led the team to the Florida Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championship. Terry Darby, squad captain, brought honors to Southern as he was selected as a member of the All State Team. With competition unusually stiff, the "booters," under Coach Jim Bush, ended the year with an impressive record of 4-4-1.

Right: During an away game against Stetson, Terry Darby stands ready to make an assist to his teammate.

Varsity Baseball

The Baseball Mocs hope to match or surpass last year's record of 20-7 which won the FIC title. The team is led by returning veterans such as Simmons, Priester, Mowbray, Oktavec, Sabatini, Hockensmith, Bates, Lazzeroni, and Bruce Aitken. Aitken, selected 1965 All-Conference and Second Team Small College All-American pitcher, had one of the lowest Earned Run Averages in the nation last year—.63 for 71 innings. Ken Huebner, MVP in the FIC for two years, signed with the Philadelphia Phillies and is missed by the team. The Mocs are facing such competition as the University of Florida, University of Miami, William and Mary, Harvard and Georgia Tech.

Varsity Golf

The 1966 golf team was another young team this year having six freshmen on a team of ten. To add to the "new look" John Mack was added to the athletic staff as golf coach. Under his leadership, captain Ed Ceriani and the Moc golfers showed that they had put in many hours of practice on the course.

At Right: Ed Ceriani shows the form that made him the Most Valuable Player for 1964-65.

Varsity Crew

The Water Mocs faired well despite having to face one of the toughest schedules to date. The varsity shell had five returning lettermen, two j.v. lettermen and one freshman. Bill Ingram was again at stroke. The Mocs rowed against such powers as Marietta, LaSalle, Purdue and other excellent northern shells. The ultimate goal was to row in the Dad Vail Regatta.

Junior Varsity Crew

The Junior Varsity Crew, made up largely of freshmen, is a stepping stone to the varsity shell. The Baby Water Mocs were up against the same rough schedule as the varsity this year. Under the leadership of Coach Bill Laswell, they gained valuable experience.

Varsity Track

The newest addition to the varsity sports program at Florida Southern is track. The Cinder Mocs are made up of a number of former high school track stars, who will be the foundation for upcoming seasons. With an ideal climate this sport should grow at Florida colleges and universities. Larry Bland, a former high school track star and University of Missouri football player, is piloting the new track team.

At left: Members of the team go over the training schedule with Coach Larry Bland.

Varsity Tennis

With only a few returning veterans, this year's Moc Netters included six freshmen. The competition was stiff, as usual, but the team's enthusiasm helped during each match. Coach Bush felt that the boys improved greatly during the year, and their experience will provide a basis for an even better team next year. The Mocs made a fine showing in conference and state matches.

INTRAMURALS

Intramural Sports

The Intramural action is fast paced energy every second of a game as fraternities, sororities and independent teams vie for the coveted All-Sports trophy. To be in contention for this each team must participate in both major and minor sports. Southern's program includes such major sports as football, volleyball, basketball, softball, as well as the minor sports of canoeing, archery, foul shooting, and wrestling. With the addition of the George W. Jenkins Field House, intramurals has become an even greater asset to students' extra-curricular life.

Left: Both "A" and "B" League games take place in the new Field House this semester. Above: The "spike" is the offensive weapon in volleyball. Upper Right: Although low scores prevail in women's basketball, the high spirit more than makes up for the score.

Below: There aren't many Johnny Unitas' produced in the "Powder Puff" leagues, but who cares? Right: Bodily contact in ragtag football is supposed to be at a minimum, yet sometimes we wonder.

Intramural Champions

At the end of the Intramural Basketball season, Sigma Chi was leading in MIM points, having won both volleyball and football. Close behind were Theta Chi and Pi Kappa Alpha. Coach Matlock said this was one of the hardest fought intramural seasons he has seen. With the outcome of Spring sports will come the overall champions, the winners of the coveted All-Sports Trophy.

Intramural Boards

The Intramural Department stresses a "sports for everyone" campaign. The Intramural Boards supervise all intramural activities on campus. They make the rules governing these sports. The Boards are composed of representatives from each fraternity, sorority, and independent group which participates in the sports. Miss Joan Kemp and Coach Charley Matlock of the physical education department are advisers.

MILITARY

Col. Robert C. Hutchinson, Jr.

Reserve Officers Training Corps

The Reserve Officers Training Corps program at Florida Southern College is part of a national effort to train qualified young men as future officers for the United States' Army. The R.O.T.C. plays a major role in the Army's leadership program by striving to build and develop competent, responsible individuals to serve as the backbone of the defense of tomorrow's America.

R.O.T.C. Sponsors

Fourteen girls were selected this year to serve as Co-ed Sponsors. Selection to the honorary group is based on beauty, poise and the desire to serve the Reserve Officers Training Corps. The Sponsors' main purpose is to help the R.O.T.C. cadets retain a sense of pride and prestige in their Army program, and to increase group morale.

DEDICATION

All the ideals, convictions, and dreams a man may have cannot be realized without the support of those he serves. A man willing to combine his private with his professional life, who puts students before self, and who keeps abreast of the fast-moving changes in the educational world, can succeed in selling his ideas to those who seek his counsel and help.

An open door, a friendly smile, a patient ear and an encouraging pat on the shoulder have won our new dean of academic affairs many friends among students and faculty members. In appreciation, the staff of THE INTERLACHEN dedicates the 1966 edition to . . .

Rounding out their last year at Southern, the class of 1966 worked hard to leave their mark. In addition to a banquet and commencement exercises, the spring semester was marked by a class-sponsored dance and talent show. The gift left to the college was display cases for the chapel valued at two thousand dollars.

BOB McOSKER Vice-President
JOYCE JONES Secretary-Treasurer

Del Vecchio, Jones, McOsker

The Junior Class started off the year by sponsoring an all-campus dance, with free refreshments served. The real fun (and work) came later on in the second semester, with the sponsorship of the class's third annual all-campus Talent Show. There was a great variety of entertainment, and prizes were given to the winners of each category. Proceeds from the show were donated to the E. T. Roux Library for the purchase of new books.

LINDA PARSONS Secretary-Treasurer

Nichols, Parsons, Barber

At the beginning of the year, the Sophomores at Florida Southern helped orientate the Freshmen to life at FSC by organizing Rat Week. Rat Court was held and was followed by the highlight of the week, the Rat Dance. The Sophomores contributed to campus spirit by the formation of a "car smash" project to promote campus enthusiasm. The class sponsored several all-campus socials and an all-campus picnic. They also undertook the buying of uniforms for the newly formed track team.

DEBBIE MARKERT Secretary-Treasurer

Clay, Bowles, Markert

The Freshman Class has provided the enthusiasm for the "Come Alive" spirit of Southern's campus. Their social year included a Halloween dance with a trophy given to the "grubbiest guy and gal," class brunches, victory dances following basketball games and a combination hootenanny-hayride dance. The main project of this class was strengthening the student body by promoting spirit in sports with dances, pep rallies and other activities.

THE LAST CROWD . . .
the last convocation . . .
students and faculty fading
. . . the last goodbyes . . .
a campus quiet, once again . . . until the first classes of summer school
renew the tune of COME ALIVE . . . "Yours is a vital generation . . ."

*Sometimes we take our friends for granted
Throughout our busy days.
But, beware, the time will soon come for
The parting of the ways.
The old saying that comes to mind
Is true and lingers on—
The worth of our friends is greatest
When we realize they've gone
Yes, the saddest time of the school year
Is at the very end—
How sad it is when the good friends we've made
May never come again.*

The 1966 INTERLACHEN staff salutes you—our advertisers—for your interest and cooperation in making possible the publication of this year's Florida Southern College yearbook. The staff urges all friends and students of the College to call upon these firms for service at every opportunity.

BUILDING A BETTER FUTURE WITH FLORIDA SOUTHERN COLLEGE . . .

Education, it is often said, is the backbone of the future. We agree. Templin's, Inc., General Contractors, is proud to have had the opportunity to join with Florida Southern College in building a better future for many young people and for the world in which they live. Among the educational facilities constructed on the campus by Templin's is the Branscomb Auditorium, said to be one of but two acoustically perfect auditoriums in the United States. We may build bigger buildings in our business . . . but none will serve the future so well as those at Florida Southern College.
